My Bunk Is Better

Psst! Hey, Fred.
Come up here.

The top bunk is the best.

No way!
The bottom bunk is the best.

A cartoon illustration of a fox in a tree house and a dog on the ground at night. The fox is orange with large white eyes and is wearing purple and white striped pajamas. It is leaning over the edge of a wooden tree house, looking down. The tree house is built in a large tree with brown branches and green leaves. The ground is brown with some red rocks and blue patches. A yellow dog with brown spots and a green collar is sitting on the ground, looking up at the fox. There are two red mushrooms with white spots near the dog. The background is dark blue with yellow stars.

Come up here, Fred!
This is a tall tree house.

Come down here, Fred!
This is a cozy cave.
